

actually take place.

* In the words of Morgenthau, "Theory consists in ascertaining facts and giving them meaning through reason."

Morgenthau has explained six principles of his realist theory. These are given below.

1. first principle:- political theory Based on objective laws of Human nature.
2. second principle:- National Interest defined in terms of National power.